

COVID-19 CODE OF CONDUCT

ITM IRISH STALLION TRAIL 14-15 JANUARY 2022

For your safety and the safety of others, please observe the following guidelines.

Scope of this Conduct:

The following COVID-19 Code of Conduct has been agreed by Horse Racing Ireland. This Code of Conduct will be continuously updated in accordance with current Government guidance.

Code of Conduct:

All Attendees who enter stud farms (including all surrounding land, car parks and other facilities which are under the ownership and/or control of the Operator) shall be deemed to have accepted, and agree to comply with, this Code of Conduct. Attendees are admitted to the farms strictly subject to this Code of Conduct. There are no exceptions.

All Attendees:

- Do not attend any farm if you have symptoms of COVID-19 or are a close contact of a COVID-19 case.
- If your health status changes between agreeing to this Code of Conduct and the date of the Stallion Trail, please do not attend.
- If you have travelled from outside Ireland or Northern Ireland in the last 14 days, please see <https://www.gov.ie/en/publication/b4020-travelling-to-ireland-during-the-covid-19-pandemic/> for the latest travel advice and ensure you have completed all requirements.
- If you have any underlying medical conditions placing you in a vulnerable category please assess your own risk before deciding to attend.
- Be aware that the contact information given at registration will be kept for up to 28 days to facilitate contact tracing.
- Download and install the HSE COVID-19 Contact Tracing App prior to arrival.
- Practice physical distancing and hand hygiene while travelling to and from the stud farm and have respect for the areas surrounding the farm, including local businesses and residents.
- Arrive in good time and comply with the necessary check-in procedures. If a time is specified on your registration, arrive at that time.
- Be aware that your temperature may be checked before entry. Please comply with any health checks that may be required on entering the farm.
- Follow all signage and instructions of staff, officials, or any emergency service personnel present.
- Always observe physical distancing.
- Avoid contact with others who are not in your social bubble.
- Maintain good hygiene. Wash your hands frequently and use hand sanitiser.
- Avoid touching your face whenever possible.
- Always wear face coverings, except when eating or drinking, unless you are under 13 or unable to wear them because of a physical or mental illness or disability.
- Observe respiratory etiquette – always cover your mouth if needing to cough or sneeze.
- Ensure all those attending have read and understood this Code of Conduct.
- Failure to follow this Code of Conduct may lead to denial of entry or expulsion.
